

Report
on the observation of 'World Cancer Day' on 4th February'2021

Cancer seems to prevalent at least one member amongst either in the family to relatives in our college family. It is very costly and problematic affair to the family directly by way of monetary and psychological concerned and indirectly to distant relatives up to some extent.

When the topic was open to students for a seminar -cum-awareness talk as suggested by teachers, students were very enthusiastic and ever ready to participate the seminar by way of paper presentations. Students were notified for their preparation with assigned sub-themes. In three days time they came out with prepared power point presentation slides. It is seen that with some involvement students can do wonders.

At the same time one of our teaching staff colleagues, a breast cancer survival, Ms. Mouchumi Konwar, Associate Professor, Dept. of Chemistry, was well enough to be the resource person for the event. She shared her experiences from detection to complete cure of cancer in a span of about one year time.

With aim to impart students the art of arrangement and conducting a meeting, students were assigned different duties according to their ability and capacity in form of anchoring the proceeding of meeting, seating arrangement, refreshment serving, etc. Students were given a five minutes time for deliberation of their topics through power point presentation and additional two minutes for discussion.

During the meeting Ms. Utpala Barman Baruah, VP, Mr. Jayanta Sonowal, Asst. Coordinator, IQAC, Ms. Dorodi Saikia Borah, Assc. Professor, Dept. of Zoology, Ms. Pranita Rajkhowa, Asst. Professor, Dept. of Economics and I, Hijam Homendro Singh, HoD, Dept. of Zoology, spoke on topics related to cancers.

The observation of the World Cancer Day was anchored by a senior student, Ms Ankurima Saikia and the vote of thanks was also delivered by Ms. Jyoti Kumari Sah. The seminar was attended by 17 teachers and 53 students in all. It turned out to be a successful programme and was appreciated by one and all that present during the meeting.
