The NSS Special camp, 2021 was held in two phases, first 3 days at Namrup College premise and rest of days at Kawaimari village which is adopted by Namrup College.

Day-1: 29th of November, 2021

First day started with the registration of the NSS volunteers from 11 am- 12 pm in the Seminar Hall of Namrup College. Many of the enthusiastic students register themselves as a NSS volunteers and they were divided into five groups namely Kanaklata, Piyoli, Lachit, Sukafa and Gadadhar.

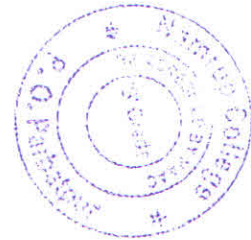

Day-2: 30th November, 2021

The 2nd day started off with Morning assembly, Yoga and physical exercise which was carried out under the supervision of Mouchumi Gogoi, Afreen Rahman and Archika Das. The 2nd day officially was started by an Inaugural session with Mr. Bimal Ch. Gogoi, Principal i/c of Namrup College as the president in the chair at College Auditorium. Ms. Utpala Barman Baruah, Vice-principal of Namrup College lighted the ceremonial lamp which was followed by the welcome address of Mr. Kalyan Gogoi, Programme officer, NSS Unit of Namrup College. Then Mr. Bimal Ch. Gogoi inaugurated the camp officially and in his speech, he told about the motto of NSS and gave his best wishes to Programme officer along with the NSS volunteers. After that the guest present in the meeting delivered a very informative speech. After the end of the inaugural session, three technical sessions were carried out by Mr. Kalyan Gogoi and Mr. Lambit Hazarika to motivate and give orientation to NSS volunteers.

Technical Session I: 11 am to 12 pm

Topic: Motivation of NSS volunteers

Resource person: Mr. Kalyan Gogoi, Programme Officer, NSS unit, Namrup College

Technical Session II: 12pm to 12.30 pm

Topic: NSS clap practice by NSS Volunteers

Resource person: Mr. Lambit Hazarika, Ex- overall leader, NSS unit, Namrup College

Technical Session III: 12pm to 12.30 pm

Topic: NSS song practice by NSS Volunteers

Resource person: Mr. Lambit Hazarika, Ex- overall leader, NSS unit, Namrup College and other NSS volunteers

For some fun, the NSS Volunteers had a short cultural session followed by the March pass practice by the volunteers. The 2nd day of the camp was concluded with some light refreshments.

Day- 3: 1st of December, 2021

The 3rd day started off with Yoga and physical exercise which was carried out under the supervision of Mouchumi Gogoi, Afreen Rahman and Archika Das. As the 1st December is World AIDS Day so NSS unit collaborated with the Green Life Society of Zoology Department, Namrup College to organize an Awareness programme on AIDS. This programme had 2 technical sessions and the 1st technical session was started at 11am in the College Auditorium. The 1st technical session was carried out by the students of Zoology Department and 2nd one was carried out by Mr. Hijam Homandro Singh, HoD & Associate Professor of Zoology. This awareness programme came to an end at 2pm. It was followed by the discussion on future plans of NSS unit. Like the 2nd Day, 3rd day came to an end with light refreshments.

Day- 4: 3rd of December, 2021

Just like the other days, the 4th day was also started with Yoga session. At 10.30 am, NSS volunteers along with the Programme Officer and other officials of NSS unit headed towards Kawaimari High School, Kawaimari village (Adopted village of the college). There was a short opening ceremony and in the opening ceremony, college flag was hoisted by Ms. Binita Borah, Chairperson of NSS advisory committee of Namrup College. Then NSS volunteers were grouped for different activities such as surveying, teaching and other activities. After that, NSS volunteers had their lunch and were ready for village survey. For the survey, volunteers were divided into teams and each team comprised of four members and each member was asked to survey two houses. During the survey, they came to know about different issues faced by the villagers and they were trying their level best to create awareness among the villagers and returned to their camp within the given time.

Day-5: 4th of December, 2021

The 5th day of the camp volunteers reached the school by 9 am and the day began with the morning assembly and yoga. Then the volunteers were divided into groups for preparation of wall magazine, for preparing lunch, for cleaning and other one for maintaining the cleanliness around the school. After that they had their lunch. In the 5th day of the camp, NSS unit took a very essential step of creating awareness on wildlife conservation as one of the major problems faced by the villagers was human- wildlife (especially leopard) conflict. This awareness programme and discussion was carried out by Mr. Hijam Homandro Singh, HoD & Associate Professor of Zoology Department of Namrup College and his team which comprised students of Zoology. After this, a friendly football match was played between NSS unit of Namrup College and Kawimari Youth Club. With this match, the 5th day of the camp ended.

Day-6: 5th of December, 2021

Since the 6th day was Sunday, NSS volunteers gathered in Namrup College and they prepared themselves for cultural events (Dance and Chorus practices etc.). They also had a discussion on wall magazine and other incomplete task.

Day-7: 6th of December, 2021

The last and the 7th day of the camp started with the morning assembly and yoga at the Kawaimari High School. After this session, a seminar on "Plastic Management" was given by Mr. Jayanta Sonowal, Assistant Professor, Department of Botany of Namrup College. After this, an open meeting was held at playground of Kawaimari High School. All the guests were given a warm welcome by the NSS volunteers as well as the students of the school with the NSS Clap. This meeting was presided by Mr Arun chetia. In the meeting, all the guests delivered very interesting and informative speeches especially by Mr. Bimal Ch. Gogoi, Principal i/c , Namrup College and Dr. Durga Prasad Gogoi, Ex- Programme officer, NSS unit of Namrup College. In the meeting, wall magazine was inaugurated by Ms. Utpala Barman Baruah, Vice- principal of Namrup College. In the cultural programme NSS volunteers Shilpi Tasa, Mitali Bhadra and Subhadra Gogoi sang very beautifully and group dance was also performed by the School. Subhadra Gogoi was selected as the best NSS volunteer in the meeting. The meeting ended with the vote of thanks from Mr. Kalyan Gogoi, Programme Officer of NSS unit, Namrup College.
